

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS & RESPONSE

Incorporating MCH Populations

WHAT IS AN EMERGENCY?

Emergencies are unpredictable

but

MCH preparedness & response should not be.

Join the Emergency Preparedness and Response Action Learning Collaborative!

How can the EPR ALC help?

E P R A L C

WHAT'S COVERED

- MCH needs during an emergencies
- Reproductive health
- Access to contraception
- Post-disaster indicators
- PRAMS
- Pregnancy estimation tools
- Communication capacity
- Adapting PHEP capabilities
- Psychosocial effects of disasters
- Data collection in emergencies
- Safe sleep
- Hospital preparedness
- Infant & young child feeding
- Family perspectives
- State-specific examples

TESTIMONIALS

"Valuable lessons learned from the experts guiding us in our planning efforts"

"Many resources to explore"

"Informative in-person meeting"

"Timely and engaging discussions"

+ MORE INFORMATION

The primary contact for applications is Dr. Theresa Chapple-McGruder, Associate Director of Workforce and Capacity Building, at AMCHP. Please see the Request for Letters of Intent for more detailed information. Any questions can be directed to Theresa by email at Tchapple-mcgruder@amchp.org.

ASSOCIATION OF MATERNAL & CHILD HEALTH PROGRAMS