

Partnering with PURPOSE
APRIL 13-16 | OAKLAND, CA

Black Maternal Health Sessions

all times in PT

Sunday, April 14

		Location
11:45am - 12:45pm	A4 - Birth Justice IS Social Justice: The Role of Social Workers in Black Maternal Health Care & Research	Junior Ballroom 1,2
12:50pm - 1:50pm	VW5 - Perinatal Quality Collaboratives Partnering with Doulas for Quality Improvement and Birth Equity	Virtual Session
2:00pm - 3:00pm	B1 - Battling Bias: Learning from the Lived Experience to Improve Perinatal Care and Advance Health Equity, 2023 Data from Irth App's Digital Platform	Grand Ballroom ABC

Monday, April 15

2:30pm - 3:30pm	E1 - Philanthropic Funding Toward Birth Equity	Grand Ballroom ABC
2:30pm - 3:30pm	E8 - Lessons Learned from the Centering Black Mothers in California Project: Community- Academic-State Partnership is Essential to Address Black Birth Inequities	Junior Ballroom 3,4
4:30pm - 5:30pm	F6 - My Black Health is Beautiful: Driving Transformation Through Partnership and Representation	OCC 208

Tuesday, April 16

11:00am - 12:00pm	G2 - Synergy in Kansas: The Story of a State MCH Agency & a State and Local Breastfeeding Coalition	Grand Ballroom DE
-------------------	---	-------------------

VIEW CONFERENCE FULL SCHEDULE FOR DETAILS

Partnering with PURPOSE
APRIL 13-16 | OAKLAND, CA

Black Maternal Health Posters

all times in PT**

Saturday, April 13 | 5:30pm - 7:30pm | On-Site at the Exhibit Hall

- (P01) The Perspectives of non-Hispanic Black Women on their Healthcare-Related Maternal Health Experiences
- (P02) Building a Culturally Congruent Community-based Perinatal Workforce
- (P03) A Community-Driven Approach to Addressing Disparities in Maternal Health
- (P04) The Black Birthing Experience in Hillsborough County, Florida: Our Call to Action
- (P05) Highlighting the Struggles and Strengths of Black Birth Workers in Northern California
- (P06) Leveraging Community Collaboration to Improve Black Birthing Outcomes
- (P07) Investigating the Disparities in Black/African American Maternal Healthcare in the U.S.
- (P08) The California Coalition for Black Birth Justice: Unifying the Vision for Systemic Change
- (P09) Associations Among John Henryism Active Coping and the Mental and Physical Health of African American Women: A Scoping Review
- (P10) Centering Community Advisory Boards in Research to Reduce Disparities in Maternal Morbidity and Mortality
- (P11) Partnering with Black Birthing people to design a strategic postpartum model of care to improve maternal health outcomes
- (P12) Developing a Strategic Plan for a Community Coalition – East Garfield Park Best Babies Zone
- (P13) It Takes a Community: The Interdisciplinary nature of community engagement on maternal health disparities
- (P15) Chronic Worry about Racism among California Black Infant Health Program Participants

Virtual Posters

- (VP70) Community-Centered Maternal and Reproductive Health Study: Understanding the Black Maternal Health Experience in Central Brooklyn, NY
- (VP71) Creating an IMPACT through community-academic partnerships
- (VP72) Engaging Diverse Local Leaders to Address Perinatal Information Gaps for Black Families

VIEW CONFERENCE FULL SCHEDULE FOR DETAILS