State spotlight: Expanding and Resourcing Doula Work in New Mexico

New Mexico Black, Indigenous and People of Color policy experts worked with the New Mexico Medicaid leadership to design a reimbursement package for doulas to go live on July 1, 2024. With support from the New Mexico Department of Health, the work of the policy experts was sustained during this planning period, and Title V works to support doula and community health worker sustainability across New Mexico.

Current Special Projects of Regional and National Significance (SPRANS)

Special Projects of Regional and National Significance (SPRANS) funding complements the formula funding each state receives and helps ensure the success of state Title V, Medicaid, and CHIP programs by driving innovation, responding to emerging and entrenched issues, and building capacity for integrated systems of care for women, children, and families.
