

Invitation to Support Diverse Leaders at the 2025 AMCHP Annual Conference

AMCHP's Voice for Impact Scholarship

AMCHP encourages you to invite or provide financial support through a sponsorship to the following individuals involved in your maternal and child health (MCH) efforts to attend the 2025 AMCHP Annual Conference:

- Youth and young adult leaders (including students)
- Family leaders
- Community-based organizations (CBOs)
- Community-rooted partners
- Indigenous people⁽⁴⁾ and Indigenous-led organizations, and
- Tribal Governments

Your support will help cover all or a portion of their conference expenses, which include conference registration, travel, lodging, and meals.

How You Can Support

See page two for the anticipated costs of supporting these individuals to attend our 2025 AMCHP Annual Conference.

To materialize your support, please email us at conference@amchp.org and put in the subject line AMCHP's Voice for Impact Scholarship expressing interest by Friday, February 21, 2025.

You can also click the donation button upon registering or support people you already work with within your state or jurisdiction.

HOW AMCHP WILL ACKNOWLEDGE YOUR CONTRIBUTION

- Shout-out on AMCHP's social media
- Acknowledgment on the AMCHP Conference Newsletter
- Recognition during one of the conference plenaries
- Inclusion of your name or logo on walk-in slides ahead of sessions

THE IMPACT OF YOUR SUPPORT

By supporting these individual's attendance, you or your organization will help:

1

Enhance your program's capacity for youth and community engagement and leadership development.

2

Provide a platform for these individuals to share their voices and perspectives so that they are integrated or prioritized in the various policies and programs that affect their peers and families.

3

Develop a meaningful step toward building and sustaining trusting relationships with these groups in your state.

4

Alleviate the financial burden on these individuals to make the most of this valuable opportunity.

5

Demonstrate your commitment to this year's conference theme, Partnering for Impact, in a tangible way.

6

Help AMCHP embody the Jemez Principles of Democratic Organizing, which emphasizes "nothing about us without us," by gaining invaluable insights from these individuals to apply into our work.

ANTICIPATED COSTS OF SUPPORTING ONE (1) INDIVIDUAL TO ATTEND AMCHP 2025

Registration	In-Person (Early Bird - Until Jan. 17, 2025)	In-Person Full Conference
Full Conference - Family Leader	$550	$575
Full Conference - Community-Based Organizations	$550	$575
Full Conference - Native Students, scholars, experts, and thought leaders	$550	$575
Full Conference - Student and Youth	$550	$575
Travel & Lodging
Flight & Ground Transportation	$1,000.00
Lodging	$319/night + Tax & 14.95%
Meals	$92/day minus meals provided; 75% on first and last day of travel

() Indigenous People recognize the diversity of ethnic communities whose ancestry descends from the earliest original inhabitants of the United States [and territories], in contrast to groups that have been forcibly enslaved and transported, settled, occupied, and/or colonized in these same spaces. We would like to thank Janelle Palacios of the Salish & Kootenai Tribe and CEO of Encoded 4 Story for her thought partnership, creation, and collaboration in developing this statement with members of AMCHP's CBO Conference Support Workgroup.*

