Vince Hutchins Leadership Award

Description

In 1998, AMCHP launched what was then called the “AMCHP Leadership Award” to recognize outstanding individuals, living or deceased, whose work has contributed to significant societal changes that have resulted in improvements in the health of American families and their various members. The first honoree, former First Lady Hillary Rodham Clinton, is exemplary of the stature of Leadership Award recipients.

In 2001, AMCHP renamed the Leadership Award for Dr. Vince Hutchins, a beloved national leader and life-long advocate for children’s health. During fifteen years as director of the Maternal and Child Health Bureau, Dr. Hutchins expanded the federal government’s commitment to women, children, youth, and families. He also led the development of new initiatives for children and families such as the Healthy Mothers and Healthy Babies Coalition. In honor of Vince Hutchins, this award continues to recognize leadership in promoting a society responsive to the needs of women, children, youth, and families.

Criteria

Nominees for the Vince Hutchins Leadership Award must meet the following criteria:

- Be a recognized national leader, living or deceased, with a long record of significant contributions to society, including state and federal levels of government, that improve the status of the maternal and child health community.
- Demonstrate accomplishments that advance, directly or indirectly, the health of American women, children, youth, and families, including those with special health care needs.

Selection Process

One award will be made annually from a pool of nominations solicited nationwide. AMCHP will issue a call for award nominations via AMCHP Pulse, Member Briefs, the AMCHP website, and blast emails to all AMCHP contacts approximately six months prior to the Annual Conference. Nominations will close and all materials must be submitted approximately five months prior to the Annual Conference. The Governance Committee reviews all nominations and submits a single recommendation for consideration by the Board of Directors. Nominees are notified of the final status of their submission approximately three months prior to the Annual Conference. The Vince Hutchins Leadership Award is awarded during the AMCHP Annual Conference. This award may not be awarded annually.

Special Travel Funding

The awardee will receive full conference registration (in-person).

This award does not currently cover travel to attend the AMCHP Conference to accept the award in person.
