WHO IS AMCHP?

The Association of Maternal & Child Health Programs (AMCHP) is a national resource, partner, and advocate for state public health leaders who support state maternal and child health programs and others working to improve the health of women, children, youth, families, and communities. AMCHP's mission is to advance the health of women, children, youth, families, and communities by strengthening governmental public health and deepening community partnerships.

AMCHP's members come from the highest levels of state government. They include directors of maternal and child health programs, directors of programs for children with special health care needs and other public health leaders who work with and support state maternal and child health programs. Our members directly serve all women and children nationwide and strive to improve the health of all women, infants, children, and adolescents, including those with special health care needs, by administering critical public health education and screening services, and coordinating preventive, primary and specialty care. Our membership also includes academic, advocacy, and community-based family health professionals, as well as families themselves.

AMCHP builds successful programs by disseminating best practices, advocating on our members' behalf in Washington, DC, providing technical assistance, convening leaders to share experiences and ideas, and advising states about involving partners to reach our common goal of healthy children, healthy families, and healthy communities.

MULTIPLE AVAILABLE at the $3,000 level

Each year, AMCHP recognizes individuals in MCH who have gone above and beyond to positively impact those around them through a program of awards. Leaders, innovators, professionals, youth, and legislators are selected to receive their award based on their commitment and contributions to advancing MCH and are invited to accept it at the conference. Your support will enable award recipients to travel to the conference to receive this recognition, build their professional networks, and share the work and experiences for which they were nominated. Treat these winners to the red-carpet arrival experience, with photos, interviews, and refreshments, the awards ceremony, and a chance to stay and attend the conference to continue their learning. Awardees are also recognized at the opening plenary.

Three awards categories highlight members of our community who may need additional support to travel to the conference to be celebrated.

- Community Partnership Award: For an exemplary collaboration between Title V entities and community-based organizations.
- Ryan Colburn Scholarship Award: For a young adult who identifies as having special healthcare needs or disabilities to attend the AMCHP Annual Conference, grow as a leader in MCH, and continue to honor Ryan's legacy.
- Dr. Cheryl Clark Memorial Award and Scholarship for Emerging Epidemiologists: For a student in a masters or doctoral program studying MCH Epidemiology or a professional starting out in applied MCH Epidemiology.

Your $3,000 sponsorship supports travel for one award recipient to attend the conference and be recognized by their peers and colleagues. If you specify a sponsorship for the Dr. Cheryl Clark Memorial Award, you have the option to also support a $3,000 educational stipend for the recipient. You are invited to attend and be part of the award presentation at the conference. All awards sponsors will also be recognized at the opening plenary session.
